The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1,2,6-9 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by either Liou et al or Thibodeau et al.

Both Liou et al (figs. 1-3) and Thibodeau et al (figs. 1-7) show seat belt “extenders” comprising flat elongate straps 20,40, respectively, having male latch tongues extending from one end and female latch receptacles immovably affixed to another end, and having limited flexibility. The extenders appear to include plastic covers and extend between one and eight inches in length.

Claims 3-5 and 10 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 12-16 are allowed.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Kondo, Forget et al, Childress et al, show various features of the invention.
